Bread born toasted!

Bimbo® (pronounced Beembo) Toasted Bread is an entirely different kind of bread. It's born toasted! Bimbo Bakeries has combined 65 years of baking experience to create this delicious toasted bread that has all the crunchy goodness and flavor of toast but with no toasting required!

Bimbo Toasted Bread is perfect with your favorite toppings, like butter, jam, or cream cheese, and makes a quick-and-easy breakfast. It's also great as an accompaniment to soup or for making last-minute appetizers.

Add a little variety - and a little crunch - to your day with Bimbo Toasted Bread!

Re: Ang, et. al. v. Bimbo Bakeries USA, Inc.
 Case No. 4:13-cv-01196-DMR

Dear Mr. Gore:

We write for Bimbo Bakeries USA, Inc. in relation to the above-referenced litigation. We are in receipt of the complaint that your clients filed against Bimbo Bakeries and are in the process of analyzing it. While we have not fully digested all of the intricacies of your pleading, even a cursory review easily reveals that the complaint is fatally vague as to the products and alleged representations at issue and includes a number of claims that have been dismissed in other proceedings, including some brought by your firm. Given these circumstances and your direct knowledge of them, we ask that you agree to voluntarily amend the complaint filed on behalf of your clients in this case so that we can avoid bringing what should be an unnecessary motion to dismiss.

Specifically, it appears to us that the pleading, as framed, fails to specify the products actually purchased by the plaintiffs in this case and the specific labeling claims at issue. In light of the fact that the complaint is apparently based on specific products purchased by the plaintiffs, certain claims made about those products and an alleged scheme by Bimbo Bakeries to somehow defraud its customers, the complaint does not satisfy the strict pleading requirements for such claims under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8 and 9. In addition, the complaint alleges, without any factual support to the contrary, claims based on "fresh baked" and "delivered daily" statements that are both FDA compliant and true. Finally, the Ang complaint includes a claim for restitution and unjust enrichment that is redundant to the relief requested elsewhere in the complaint.

We are quite certain that you are well aware that the pleading issues and failures that we point out here routinely have been the subject of successful motions to dismiss in California. Indeed, there have been a number of orders granting motions to dismiss such claims brought by your firm on behalf of other plaintiffs. For example, the very issues with respect to vague allegations, failure to identify products and labeling claims and asserting claims for disgorgement that your current complaint raises were the subject of recent rulings by Judge Breyer (on a motion to dismiss your complaint brought by ConAgra) and by Judge Conti (on a motion to dismiss your complaint brought by PepsiCo and Frito-Lay). As you will recall, Judge Conti, citing such precedents as Colucci v. ZonePerfect Nutrition Co., No. 12-2907 SC, 2012 WL 6737800, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 28, 2012), specifically found that your failure to identify all of the specific products and the specific labels at issue was a violation of Rules 8 and 9 and required granting the motion to dismiss claims based on those products and statements. Judge Conti further found that the claims based on Frito-Lay's website, which are materially identical to the claims made here relating to Bimbo Bakeries' website, should be dismissed. That court also indicated that statements that did not violate the FDA regulations on their face – like the "fresh baked daily" claims alleged in the Ang complaint -- were not actionable. Both Judge Breyer and Judge Conti dismissed your unjust enrichment claims as non-actionable.

Again, these rulings are just two of several in California regarding lawsuits brought by your firm finding that these types of deficiencies warrant dismissal of your clients' claims. Given that the complaint that you have filed in the Ang litigation against Bimbo Bakeries includes a large number of the same deficiencies that have already led district courts in California to grant motions to dismiss, we believe that you should withdraw your complaint and file an amended complaint that corrects these issues, specifies the products and labels at issue, if you can, includes only claims that arguably violate FDA regulations, if there are any, and are actionable under the law. We would hope that, in light of your personal knowledge regarding the pleading deficiencies identified here and how the Northern District Court has treated them in other cases, you would agree to amend your complaint and avoid our having to bring a motion to dismiss on the same basis as several other successful motions to dismiss that have been brought against your clients.

If your client does not agree within three (3) days of the date of this letter to file an amended complaint before such time that Bimbo Bakeries' response to the current pleading would be due, Bimbo Bakeries will be forced to file a motion to dismiss. Given the lack of any reasonable basis -- in light of the decisions already rendered on the very pleading deficiencies identified here -- to refuse to voluntarily amend the Ang complaint, if Bimbo Bakeries is forced to file a motion to dismiss, we will seek sanctions for having to do so.

We look forward to your response to this request.

Sincerely,

/s/ Mark Goodman

Attorneys for Plaintiffs

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND DIVISION

ALEX ANG and LYNN STREIT, individually and on behalf of all others
similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

BIMBO BAKERIES USA, INC.

Defendant.

Case No. C-13-01196-DMR

JOINT STIPULATION RE TIME TO FILE AMENDED COMPLAINT AND TIME TO RESPOND THERETO AND REQUEST TO SET MODIFIED BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Complaint filed: March 18, 2013
Judge: Hon. Donna M. Ryu

Pursuant to Local Rules 6-1 and 6-2, plaintiffs Alex Ang and Lynn Streit and defendant Bimbo Bakeries USA, Inc. (collectively, the "Parties") respectfully submit this joint stipulation requesting that the Court issue an order setting a date by which plaintiffs shall amend their complaint, extending the time within which defendant shall answer, move or otherwise respond to the amended complaint and, should defendant make a responsive motion, setting a briefing schedule for such motion. The current complaint, which will be superseded, was served on March 28, 2013.

Case No. C13-01196-DMR

JOINT STIPULATION

1 The Parties respectfully request that:

2 1. Plaintiffs' time to file an amended complaint be extended to permit the filing of
3 such amended complaint on or before May 20, 2013;

4 2. Defendant shall have thirty (30) days from the date on which plaintiffs' amended
5 complaint is served to answer, move or otherwise respond to the pleading but defendant shall be 6 permitted to request from the Court additional time to respond should the nature of plaintiffs'
7 amendments require such additional time;

8 3. Should defendant file a motion in response to the amended complaint, plaintiffs 9 shall have thirty (30) days within which to file opposition papers to such motion; and

10 4. Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days to file any reply in support of its 11 responsive motion.

12 The Parties further stipulate that Bimbo Bakeries USA, Inc. may be properly served 13 through its counsel with any notices required under the Consumer Legal Remedies Act (Cal.
14 Civil. Code § 1750, et seq.). Such notices may be served upon counsel for Bimbo Bakeries
15 USA, Inc. by electronic mail addressed to Mark Goodman and Ethan Miller.

16 The Parties request this enlargement of time and the briefing schedule herein because of 17 the complexity of the legal and factual issues in this dispute. (See Declaration of Keith M.
18 Fleischman (filed concurrently).) This is the first time any modification or extension has been
19 requested by either party in this case and this modification and/or extension would have no
20 material effect on the schedule for the case.
